TERMINATION OF E.S.M.W.T.

All instruction under E.S.M.W.T., United States, Office of Education, ceased throughout the United States on June 30, 1945, the end of the Fiscal Year.

This Program, which was instituted through the cooperation of the Engineering Schools, War Industries and the United States Office of Education with the financial support of the Federal Government, prepared trainees through short, intensive engineering, science, and management courses on college level, for job opportunities in war inductives and the Armed Forces.

E.D.T. - E.S.M.W.T. in REVIEW at HOWARD UNIVERSITY

Alert to their obligations in War as in peace-times the President, Faculty, and Board of Trustees of Howard University, through the School of Engineering and Architecture, placed the full resources of the University at the immediate disposal of the U. S. Office of Education and War industries in the interest of the health, safety and welfare of the Nation.

Howard University was included among the first group of Engineering Schools to be approved for the conduct of Engineering Defense Training under the U. S. Office of Education. The first course of instruction under this Program at Howard University was started January 3, 1940, and the last course ended on June 29, 1945.
